Doglaw Seminar Programme

This seminar is a wide-ranging mix of legal issues that are important to dog owners, including responsibilities when buying and selling dogs, liability (both civil and criminal) for dogs that harm people and animals and much more.

Topics are likely to include:-

- New developments in Doglaw
- Ownership disputes
- Dog abduction (theft)
- Civil claims against vets
- Civil claims against other dog owners
- Collar + tag
- Microchipping
- Contracts to buy and sell dogs
- Dogs dangerously out of control (Dangerous Dogs Act 1991)
- Breed Specific Legislation (including the XL Bully ban)

The seminar is expected to last up to 3hrs (including a break). Content is liable to change.

“All dog owners should be thankful for having such a champion”

Dog World

The way it works, is that you:

- Provide the venue (which has toilets + ample parking)
- Obtain a minimum of 30 attendees (and hopefully aim for many more...!)
- Provide tea/coffee (for free) for when people arrive and at a break halfway through
- Promote the seminar to your members and locally to others (including to vets practices, rescues and dog related professionals in the area)
- Have a free place together with one or two helpers

We will:

- Charge attendees £30 and pay you £10 for each paid attendee
- Provide you with a pdf of the booking form for you to promote the event by email
- Post it onto our Facebook page from time to time
- Receive payment from delegates online or by phone (although you can take the payment direct on our behalf if you prefer)
- Aim to ensure there is no other Doglaw seminar within 45mins drive of your venue, within 4 months of your booking
- NB If you aren't able to get to an absolute minimum of 20 paying delegates then unfortunately we would have to cancel the event

If you would like to host:
